Reflection Questions for the Fourth Sunday of Lent

- ◆ How can I live in the light of God's love, and encourage others to do the same?
- ◆ Where do I feel most at home in my life? How can I make sure that God is the center of that home?
- ◆ In what ways do I find myself judging others instead of loving them? How can I overcome this tendency?

For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life.
 - John 3:16

Altar Flowers

Altar flowers may be donated in memory or honor of a loved one or to mark a special occasion. Please contact the church office for more information.

Attention Parents

Youth Night is Friday,
 March 15 @ 5:30pm.
 All youth 6th grade and up are invited to attend.
 Dinner will be provided.

Easter Lilies

Easter lilies are available for purchase for memorials and in honor of loved ones.

They are $35 each.

Contact the church office about purchasing.

Please make a note on your contribution containing the name of the person (in memory or in honor of) they are for, as it will be published in the bulletin on Easter Sunday.

Today is the halfway mark of the Sundays of Lent. This Sunday is known as Laetare Sunday for the first word of the Introit or Entrance Antiphon laetare (rejoice); it is a Sunday of joy.

ATTENTION PARENTS

NO CCD March 17, 24, or 31.
 These dates coincide with Spring Break, Palm Sunday, and Easter Sunday.

The Month of March is dedicated to St. Joseph.

What did he do? In the most hidden way, he worked at his trade in order to support the family entrusted to him by God. He served and protected them, with the deepest respect and humility. He loved his Immaculate Spouse with the highest purity and adored Her Divine Son with his whole being, often laying his own head on Jesus' chest so as to absorb every loving heartbeat. His Most Chaste Heart daily suffered the most excruciating pains of compassion, knowing all of the pains his beloved Wife and Son would have to endure. But above all, St. Joseph perfectly obeyed the Will of God... doing what he was supposed to do at each moment until the Lord revealed the next step.
